

New Dump Opened North Of Huron St., Other One Closed

The new municipal dump was opened this week and the old dump on Queen St. will be closed. The opening of the new dump brings considerable relief to the residents on Queen St. and other streets adjacent to the former dumping grounds.

The new dump is situated on the east side of the river and north of Huron St. It is reached by a lane running alongside Dixon Pencil Co. Dumping hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

At a special meeting of the council and the garbage collectors last week, it was emphasized that garbage trucks must be covered by tarpaulins when en route to the dump. "There have been many complaints of garbage dropping from trucks not so covered," Councillor A. V. Higginson, chairman of the property committee, stated. "There must be a firm understanding that trucks will be covered in the future."

One of the conditions of using the new dump is that wet and dry garbage be dumped separately. When told this, the garbage collectors protested that the public refused to co-operate in this respect. "They mix everything up regardless," council was told. "We must take a firm stand in this matter," said Mr. Higginson.

"Anyone using the dump must tell Ernest Gardiner whose home is on the property as they go through the gate," Mr. Higginson stated. "Mr. Gardiner is in charge up there and he must be told when the dump is being used."

JAS. D. MOORE NAMED BRANT COUNTY REP.

James D. Moore, Newmarket, who for over two years has been assistant agricultural representative for York county, has just been appointed agricultural representative for the county of Brant to succeed Ian McLeod, who has resigned to take up farming. Mr. Moore left today to take over his new duties with headquarters at Brantford.

Born on a Peterboro farm, Mr. Moore attended the Kemptville agricultural school for two years before going to the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph. He served in York during the summer of 1943 as an undergraduate and returned to the county in the spring of 1944 following his graduation from the O.A.C. where he was awarded the lieutenant governor's medal for his outstanding work in animal husbandry.

Assigned most of the Junior Farmer work by W. M. Cockburn, York agricultural representative, he took keen interest in boys' club work in which he had been active as a lad on the farm. In 1943, his Sharon swine club team won both the provincial and dominion championships and in 1944, his Woodbridge calf club team won both these honors for York County. He has also played a large part in building up the already active Junior Farmer clubs in the county and in the recent provincial Junior Farmer field day at Guelph, got both the boys' and girls' softball teams in the finals.

EDITORIAL
There is a serious housing shortage in Newmarket. It has been further aggravated by the return in increasing numbers of Newmarket servicemen from overseas.

There are apartments and rooms for rent but restrictions against children, in some cases, make them unavailable for those who need them.

In this emergency, would it not be possible for those owning large homes or having rooms not in use to offer accommodation until the emergency period is over? It would be an act of Christian kindness.

Circulate Petition On West Park Ave.

Following a meeting between representatives of home and lot owners on Park Ave., west of the town line, and council members, a petition is being circulated asking for annexation of the area.

The petition asks that the town line be extended to include land north and south of Park Ave. to a total of between 400 and 500 ft. "We met with Councillor J. L. Spillette and Deputy-Reeve Arthur D. Evans Monday night and they were very cordial," said J. B. Waterhouse, Park Ave. property owner. "We discussed the possibilities of annexation and the petition is the result."

At last week's council meeting, Mr. Waterhouse and Elman W. Campbell appeared before the council with a petition asking the town to extend water services beyond the town line on Park Ave. where new homes are being built. The property owners offered to pay a large portion of the cost of installing water pipes and a higher rate for the service.

Council members heard the petition and suggested as an alternative that the property be included within the town limits. Monday night's meeting was arranged to discuss the possibilities.

Schools Reopen Tuesday; Expect More At N.H.S.

Newmarket public schools will open with somewhat the same enrolment as last year, Principal Harold A. Jackson said this week. "Last year's enrolment for the three schools was 563 and it appears that it will be approximately the same this year," he said.

Two new teachers have joined the public school staff and will start teaching this fall. They are Miss Agnes J. Graham, formerly of Elmville, who has been appointed to the staff of Stuart Scott school, and Miss Eva Barnes, Malton, who has been appointed supply and auxiliary class teacher.

"We've done considerable painting and minor repair work in all the schools," R. L. Pritchard, secretary of the school board, stated. "We intend to equip King George school with kindergarten chairs and tables as soon as they can be procured which, it is expected, will be in October."

Midgets Entered In Second Round Of Ontario Finals

HOME THIS WEEK

(By ORVILLE GANTON)

By winning both games of a home and home series 14-7 and 14-2, Newmarket midgets eliminated Collingwood and qualified for the second round of Ontario Baseball Association play-offs.

In Collingwood last Thursday the boys played sparkling ball behind the seven-hit pitching of Ken Broughton. They went on the offensive in the first inning with a three-run rally and then held the ship-yard boys scoreless until the fourth. McHale, Rutledge and Little were the big shots with the timber while little "Motts" Thoms put on a great display defensively. Smith, Collingwood's second sacker, was their main cog. He took over the pitching duties in the sixth. He is a smart, up and coming ballplayer. A well kept diamond and a very large enthusiastic crowd made the setting perfect.

In the return game at Newmarket camp diamond yesterday, Stundén, 15-year-old southpaw, gave a masterful performance on the mound. He allowed Collingwood only five hits, struck out nine and walked five to let them down with two runs. The boys played smart ball behind him, "Motts" Thoms, Rutledge and Little turned in some sharp fielding plays. "Billy" McGee, Newmarket first sacker, had a perfect day with the bat with two triples, one double and two singles. Mac Clement caught a magnificent game, his throwing to the bases was exceptional for a youngster.

Up to the present the boys of the team, their parents and a few staunch supporters have provided transportation and other incidental expenses. With long road trips now becoming necessary the club is making an appeal to the citizens for funds. Unless this appeal receives favorable response they might be compelled to withdraw from the play-offs. This gang of hustling kids, who love to play ball, reached the top hard way, by their own initiative. So now let's all chip in so they may continue their quest for the Ontario championship.

Newmarket: McHale, rf; Rutledge, ss; McGee, 1b; Clement, c; Little, 3b; Thoms, 2b; Doolittle, lf; Brown, cf; Broughton, p; Stundén, p; Jewett.

Military Wedding Feature Of August Ceremonies

The marriage of Dorothy Elymore Helene Dales, daughter of the late Robert Nelson Dales and niece of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Dales, Newmarket, to Capt. Alexander George Maitland, son of Major and Mrs. Alexander Maitland, Brockville, took place in the chapel of No. 23 B.T.C. on Wednesday, Aug. 22, 1945. A military ceremony, the newlywedded pair walked under an arch of swords at the completion of the service and were escorted by the pipe band of the camp.

The ceremony was performed by the camp padre, Rev. Capt. Holley, assisted by Rev. Alexander B. Stein. Sgt. Gordon Hellett was organist and Dr. C. S. Gilbert was soloist.

Given in marriage by her uncle, the bride wore a grey suit with pink accessories and wore a corsage of white gladioli and pink rosebuds. Her bridesmaid, Miss Elsa Maitland, Cornwall, wore navy blue and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. Capt. John Hughes, Washington, was best man and Lieut. J. W. Dales, R.C.N.V.R., was usher.

At a reception held in the officers' mess at the camp, the bride's aunt, Mrs. Dales, and the mother of the groom received with Lieut. Col. Newton M. Young, commanding officer of the camp, and Mrs. Young. The mess was gaily decorated with a bower of flowers and streamers set up at one end. The bride cut the wedding cake with the sword of her husband.

For travelling the bride wore a grey suit with pink accessories.

The couple will spend their honeymoon at Pine Lake near Gravenhurst and on their return will reside in Toronto. Guests for the wedding came from Ottawa, Cornwall, Toronto and Burbank, Calif.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was the setting for the marriage of LAW Gertrude Pearl Pollock Davidson, R.C.A.F. (W. D.), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Donald Davidson, Newmarket, to Flt.-Lieut. John David Malcolm, R.C.A.F., only son of Mrs. Ernest Saxon and the late Thomas Malcolm, also of Newmarket, on Saturday, Aug. 25. Rev. David Davidson, uncle of the bride, officiated. Mrs. George P. Wood provided music at the organ and Mr. Leonard Little sang "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white bridal satin. Her full skirt fell from a moulded bodice into a slight train. Her long veil of illusion net was draped from a band of baby hincins. She carried a cascade bouquet of deep red roses. Mrs. Maxwell H. Stiles, sister of the bride, was matron of honor in dusky pink with matching headdress and shoulder-length veil. The bridesmaids, Miss Lois Cane and Miss Doris Pollock, were in pale blue net over taffeta with matching flower hats. They all carried pink roses. Maxwell H. Stiles was best man and the ushers were Flt.-Lieut. Ted Pollock, Kitchener, Claude Pollock, Keswick, (Page 6, Col. 1)

PLANNING IS NEEDED

The sale of the property at the corner of Main and Water Sts. to an oil firm in Toronto is an illustration of what results from a lack of a definite long-range town planning scheme. At a time when the construction of public buildings and provision for municipal facilities are being considered, the sale of a choice site gives an added emphasis to what will happen if no definite policy is laid down.

At a recent council meeting, an architect was called in to provide estimates on the proposed memorial auditorium. He was instructed to look over the possible sites for not only the auditorium but for other buildings the town will require in the future. The architect began his work under a heavy handicap since town-owned sites are scarce and lacking in space for parking. They are widely scattered which would mean individual heating plants instead of the much cheaper central heating. They are near the railroad or else without the central location which is necessary. Of all the municipally-owned sites, there are none which would permit the erection of a group of buildings and still meet the needs of parking space and central location.

The architect's labors, under these circumstances, are worse than useless. He can, of course, make do what is available but the results will be far from what would be desired. It would be similar to building a house of cards; he could continue to build within the framework of what exists but eventually the whole business will come tumbling down and have to be done again at a tremendous additional expense.

What is needed are municipal ordinances which will provide for planned building. For example, the eventual widening of Main St. has been complicated by the lack of an ordinance preventing building too close to the road-line. Had such an ordinance been in effect in recent years, the re-modelling of stores on Main St. could have been done in such a way that there would be plenty of allowance for widening Main St. As it is, the widening of Main St. will involve setting back store fronts.

Equally important is a plan of town buying and selling. The municipality owns the building where the present municipal offices are located. It owns the market square behind it, but the ground on Botsford St. adjoining the end of the building was sold for the erection of a shop thus making the corner useless if the town decides to enlarge the building or tear it down and erect new quarters.

The municipality might have bought the land north of Botsford St. with a thought to expansion in that part of town. The land was bought by a business firm with the result that any expansion of parking facilities or the erection of municipal buildings north of the market square has been prevented.

In effect, the lack of a building plan has caused the loss of opportunities and the throwing away of advantages which were possessed. An integrated building plan for the future, protected by municipal ordinances, is needed before Newmarket can enjoy the advantages of a properly placed public hall and other public facilities.

THE NEW ARRIVAL

This New Arrival in our household is a curious fellow. At times he seems to have at least three pairs of arms and legs. This phenomena we notice most when changing him at 2 a.m. At a more conservative hour he appears to have only the normal number of limbs and is completely acquiescent to our ministrations.

He has brought to an otherwise mundane household an element of suspense heretofore lacking. We seem now to be engaged in an endurance contest with the New Arrival seeking to diminish the pile of fresh diapers as fast as they can be provided. His demand for food is not to be heeded. He states his wishes in no uncertain terms and when food is presented, he takes it with more enthusiasm than a drowning sailor grasping a lifeline.

For all his definite attitude about what he wants and doesn't want, the little fellow is completely helpless. Therein, we think, must be the charm of all babies. There is no greater happiness for any parent than to be able to satisfy the needs of their child. It is found in that indescribable look of well being that brightens their infant's face and the tiny half smile that hides in the corner of his mouth as he drifts into sleep.

MARKET SUPERVISION

On Aug. 4, large eggs sold for 40 cents a dozen on the Newmarket market. The same day grade A large eggs sold for 55 cents a dozen on the Hamilton market; 53 cents on the St. Catharines market; 50 cents on the Brantford market; 48 cents on the Guelph market; 52 cents on the Galt market; and 45 cents on the Woodstock market.

At the same time, retailers in Newmarket were selling eggs upwards from 50 cents a dozen.

Regional conditions might account in part for the wide difference in price but the bulk of fault lies in the lack of insistence on standards of quality. Not all eggs sold on the Newmarket market are graded and it is only reasonable to assume that the lower price of ungraded eggs keeps down the price of graded eggs. This equally applies to other produce. At the same time, ungraded produce on the market does not meet the requirements of the modern customer. He is accustomed to buy only guaranteed produce. When it is not offered, he buys elsewhere. Again, the seller cannot demand the same margin of profit if he sells ungraded produce.

If this condition was an isolated instance which did not affect others, the market might just as well be left to eke out its days. However, a vigorous, supervised market is an advantage to everyone in the district. It is an advantage for the Main St. merchant, for the housewife, and for the farmer. It is a condition capable of widespread effects. If the market is eventually closed as it will be unless restorative measures are introduced, the Main St. merchant, the housewife and the farmer all suffer.

A big market will bring more business to Newmarket and the Main St. merchant will benefit from his share in it. A market centre becomes the centre for trade in all other products. The housewife will benefit from the cheaper price, for with guaranteed products insisted on, there is still a considerable margin between the market price and the store price. The farmer will benefit in convenient outlet and a better price for his produce. The insistence on quality produce is a necessary step in providing these advantages.

THE END OF LEND-LEASE

Whatever the justification for President Harry S. Truman's directive bringing an end to Lend-Lease activity, there is little doubt that it will seriously affect the economy of the recipients.

The U.S.A. stand is that the recipients have no real cause for complaint since they have been repeatedly warned that Lend-Lease would end with the cessation of hostilities. Spokesmen for England which has received the most benefit from Lend-Lease feel, on the other hand, that such an abrupt termination of Lend-Lease suggests a too literal interpretation of the phrase "end of hostilities."

It will be many months, possibly years, before England can have a complete resumption of its pre-war economy. It was evidently assumed in England that the "cessation of hostilities" meant when England was fully converted to the works of peace, when, for example, houses were being built through a normal industrial routine instead of under high pressure to meet the needs of bombers.

In reply to charges of harsh treatment from England, Leo Crowley, U.S.A. foreign economic administrator, pointed out that England had recourse to bank funds, and credits payable over a period of 30 years and carrying two and three-eighths percent interest. England, however, has lost most of the export trade on which she depended before the war. It is questionable whether the country could revive that trade and at the same time be in a position to pay a heavy debt.

In a New York Times despatch from London, Herbert L. Mathews suggests the possibility that the cessation of Lend-Lease and whether or not some other means of aid will be substituted will depend on England's agreement to American proposals regarding trade agreements. This would be most disquieting if true. Use of economic pressure to force a decision would end for many years any chance of international co-operation at a time when such co-operation is a first requisite.

England is America's outpost; she is the base from which any American operations in Europe must begin. She is a stationary aircraft carrier, a troopship, an armed fortress standing in the path of aggression from Europe. Without England as a base, it is doubtful whether the invasion of Europe could have been attempted for another ten years or more. England will always be America's anchor in Europe. If England becomes a poor nation, a bankrupt nation, she cannot fulfill that function. It is in the interest of the United States to make every effort possible to ensure that England will prosper.

What Others Think

TEMPERANCE EDUCATION

(Free Press Herald, Midland)

Forty years ago or so the government of the province of Ontario tried to do something to educate the children against the perils of alcoholism.

There was a text book dealing with the health of the human body and the subject went by the name of "physiology." In the book, among many other interesting things, were lessons and pictures which depicted the effect on the stomach and other organs of excessive liquor drinking. It was good temperance propaganda and undoubtedly kept many people from becoming addicts.

When and why this textbook was discontinued we do not know, but it would be a safe guess that the liquor interests had something to do with it. It interfered with their trade.

Today the government is in the liquor business. It is sharing in the profits of a traffic that brings ruin to the bodies and souls of thousands of people. Men appointed as heads of the Ontario Liquor Board almost invariably end up by trying to push the sale of intoxicants rather than control their use. They try to improve their financial balance sheets and forget the physical and moral balance sheets of the people.

We have hoped that Premier Drew would use some of the alleged profits of liquor sales to educate the rising generation against the abuse of alcohol. If somehow the idea could be imparted to the boys and girls of our generation that it is a shameful thing to get drunk, then a great forward step would be taken for the good of the people. The liquor interests themselves might well collaborate in an educational program of this kind, for if they are wise they must realize that increasing drunkenness will ultimately bring a demand for prohibition of the traffic.

The Ontario Educational association might well consider ways and means of protecting the youth of the province against the steadily rising tide of alcoholism. Beverage rooms have made it easy for both boys and girls in their teens to get drunk for a lark, and once the habit is established it usually lasts a lifetime with dire consequences to the homes they will establish.

We venture the suggestion to the O.E.A. that it should definitely demand of the Department of Education a textbook and series of studies which will at least warn the boys and girls against the dangers of alcoholic over-indulgence. Our fathers were wiser than we are. We shall do well if we revive studies in physiology.

It may appear inconsistent for a government to sell liquor in one department, and teach against its abuse in another, but surely the welfare of our youth is of more importance than cash and consistency.

THE COMMON ROUND

By Isabel Inglis Colville

FOURTEEN OF THEM

When anything is repeated 26 times, it spells success, no matter in what field of endeavor the event may have been staged. The only operas I can imagine going every year for 26 consecutive years to see—not counting Grand Opera—are those of Gilbert and Sullivan and when I read the same book every year for the same number of years, I do so because I can't resist its charm. And so it is with the grandmothers' meeting of the Pine Orchard Women's Institutes, for east and west branches proudly join grandmothers on this occasion.

Yes, 26 years is a record but when you add to this the fact that this meeting has been held at the same home for all these years, it is something to boast about.

I can remember the first one I attended; that was 23 years ago and was my second Institute meeting. The country was, as it always is, at its loveliest in August and being new to me, I absorbed its beauty and all the information about the farms we passed from Mr. M. F. Starr, who was never too busy to take a carload to the Institute meeting.

The grandmothers that day staged a return to school days, having a spelling match, a geography and arithmetic lesson and sewed a fine seam as they were taught to do long ago. They sang the old songs as they have done every year since.

Some of those grandmothers have gone to the great school "beyond the veil" where we will learn anew the lessons begun on earth; their memory is part of our Institute tradition, for they were Institute pioneers in this section and in spite of busy lives they infused so much of their own vitality into their branch that it has never withered but is bearing fruit in the lives of its members.

Mrs. Charles Flintoff, our hostess that long ago day as she was last Tuesday, showed us how they used to card the wool of which so much of their clothing was made. Mrs. Abraham Skinner

W.C.T.U. NEWS

From Leonora Starr

The following article by Robert Gemmer with regard to solving the alcohol problem appeared in the American Friend:

In considering how to solve the increasingly difficult alcohol problem, one may tend to emphasize one aspect of the solution. I personally feel that a total solution of the alcohol problem requires intense work in at least three areas:

Remove Causes

Remove the causes of drinking, through the increased use of psychiatrists to help problem drinkers, by increased slum clearance and otherwise bettering the conditions of the one-third of our nation "ill-fed, ill-clothed and ill-housed"; by increase of wholesome forms of recreation, such as teen-age canteens where youth may have a clean, good time without the presence of liquor; and by Christian people setting the right example by not drinking and by patronizing those places that do not sell alcoholic beverages.

In many circles drinking has become "the thing to do." Social drinking, started thus, may lead to injury of others while under the influence of alcohol; immoderate drinking later on; and influencing others to drink by the example set. Thus moderate drinking must be opposed as well as immoderate drinking in a total solution of the alcohol problem.

Educate

Education as to the effects of the use of beverage alcohol. Such education should be given in the schools, churches, homes, etc.

Erect Guard Rail

Removal of beverage alcohol itself. Education as to what alcohol does and removal of the causes for drinking and curing alcoholics are not enough. When a typhoid fever epidemic breaks out we not only cure the diseased people but we get rid of the polluted well. Everything that leads toward the ultimate elimination of beverage alcohol should be supported.

What Happened in 1920

I do not advocate doing what we did in 1920. Dry sentiment had been increasing over a period of many decades so that, at the time of the passage of the prohibition amendment, half of the population and two-thirds of the territory were dry. The Eighteenth Amendment was adopted by higher majorities than any previous or later amendment. More states ratified it than have ratified any other amendment. It was the will of the people. But what happened?

Someone has said that good government is only one percent law and 99 percent administration. This certainly proved true in the administration of the prohibition amendment. One of the wettest men in the country, one of the United States distillery magnates, was appointed to enforce the law. He appointed an enforcement staff that predominantly had been formerly connected with the liquor business. Naturally the law was not enforced.

ner told of how self-sufficient a farm family was in her childhood—how they produced and made up nearly everything they required for their needs.

I do not remember how many grandmothers were present at that meeting but there were 14 at the latest one. Each year the grandmothers look less like the traditional grandmothers in cap and shawl. Each year in spite of home cares they are more alive to the needs of a chaotic world. But when you see them with their grandchildren you realize just how really the grandmother love is there. Each year they depart farther from the tradition which forced the grandmothers of our era into a place where they could not participate in up to the minute activities.

This year again the 14 grandmothers in the traditional shawls and some bonneted, sang the old songs—I should not say old for they never grow old. Their youth, like the grandmothers', is renewed.

Mrs. Elmer Starr gave a fine talk on the life of her mother. Mrs. Dike gave a reading that was enjoyed. Master Michael Murphy gave two splendid recitations—that boy will go far and make proud some grandmother's heart—and there was a good contest, In Grandmother's Garden.

Two hymns, Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow, and Now Thank We All Our God, were sung as thanks for V-J Day. So once more the grandmothers' meeting is gone from anticipation to reality and then to memory.

DOWN THE CENTRE

Teddy Morris, who coached the navy junior team two years ago in the local group and last winter handled the navy senior team in the services senior league, has been appointed coach of the Toronto Argonauts football club which will resume operations in the Big Four this fall. No stranger to these parts, Morris was one of the game's greatest secondary defencemen. He succeeds Lou Hayman who could not come to a financial agreement with the Argonauts executive. Morris is starting practically from scratch but can be depended upon to field a fighting team at least.

Bob Gamble of Oak Ridge, Bond Lake, is president of the Big Four this year and the senior circuit will face stern opposition from the O.R.F.U. who carried on during war years and won a big following.

A Finnegan was pulled on us a couple of weeks ago. We were assured that Jimmy Cummings, ex-Aurora junior hockeyist, and his brother-in-law, Gordy Brennan, another Aurora Tigers player, would resume the fall pastime with Oakwood Indians. We now learn they are both in Ottawa with Dave Sprague's Trojans. Oakwoods have lined up so much good backfield talent that this duo decided faraway fields look greener.

Queen's University, which is resuming operations this fall, is expecting to have Pepper Martin, former St. Andrew's all-round athlete and probably the best junior defenceman ever to wear an Aurora sweater, as one of their key players. Martin started university and played city league with Queen's before doing a stint with Canada's navy. He displayed plenty of class and we will miss our guess if he doesn't turn out to be one of the big stars of the knowledge college series.

Don Webster, ex-Aurora high school student who was playing with Toronto Varsity when the war broke out, is expected to seek a place on the U. of T. team again. Webster, who joined the R.C.A.F., was a prisoner of war for several years but has completely recovered now and should stand a good chance of making the grade.

John Stuart picked up two promising steeds for the fall meets by buying Neotrist and Floyson at the Stamford Park meet. Neotrist hadn't shown very much all year but immediately turned in a winning effort for his new owner. Floyson is a seven-year-old of the Khorsan strain and won $3,575 in purses last year but may not do as well this year.

Irwin Watts, president of the Aurora bowling club, and those associated with him deserve some well-merited praise for their efforts to keep the sport alive in Aurora. We can remember when the club used to have around 50 members, but in late years, for some reason, it has fallen off until this year there are only around a dozen members. Nevertheless, they have staged their full share of tournaments with success and the greens have had around $150 spent on them and are in exceptionally good condition. One of the newer problems to face the club is that light is supplied now by the Hydro-Electric Commission and not by the town so that it is a case of on the line or off with the lights. We admit the club should pay in the white collar class and it is within the means of everyone so that perhaps some assistance if need be by the municipality might be in order. The town receives good advertising, useful recreation is provided and a bit of a beauty spot maintained where otherwise there would be nothing but weeds. The bowlers have not asked for help but we think their position should be made known.

Frenchy Valliere, former Newmarket baseballer and softball, is now stationed at Camp Borden and busy playing a bang up game for birdmen in the senior services' softball circuit in which the R.C.A.F. is putting up stout opposition.

Bill Thoms, who is summering at Lake Simcoe and looking in better health, will be in charge of one of the farm teams belonging to the Chicago Black Hawks this winter as he ends his playing career according to all reports. The Hawks have the Vancouver club, junior associations at Moose Jaw and Edmonton, Eveleth in American amateur, Kansas City in the American association, as well as connections with other professional clubs, so Bill should probably get a fair berth. If not a manager's job he will probably act as scout for the Chibirds.

St. Louis Flyers will train at Midland this winter according to what Happy Emms told us recently. The St. Louis team, which will aid Barrie Colts this winter, was originally slated to train at Barrie where artificial ice will be installed. A change has been made which will start the season earlier so the Flyers will be at Midland in place of Barrie since the Simcoe County capital will not have its freezing system ready to go until about December from what we understand. It is a tough break for the Barrie rink since the advent of St. Louis plus some exhibition games would have got the rink off to a fine start. In addition it would have enabled the Barrie Colts to get in some extra licks towards that junior A ranking they are aiming for.

Incidentally, we extend congratulations to Ken Walls, Barrie newspaperman and sports authority, who has been named as one of the five original members of the commission which will run the new arena.

Bunny Glover, former Aurora ordinance hockey star and softball, is now located at Kingston military hospital and if not out of the army, will likely be doing his puck-chasing around the limestone city this winter. The Willowdale boy had a good year at Camp Borden last winter and if out of the army will likely return to Montreal Royals in the Quebec senior circuit, which league will be definitely semi-pro in name as well as fact this season.

Earl Rowe's good two-year-old Van Riddell again stamped himself as the most promising juvenile among Canadian harness horses by winning the Canadian Futurity stakes at the Dufferin Park harness races last week. Van Riddell won in straight heats with Mr. Rowe at the reins. The purse was $1,000 of which Mr. Rowe collected around $600. He is bringing his newest find along carefully and pointing to the grand circuit for next year.

Bob Urquhart and Norm Bryley, brilliant soccer players of the Newmarket camp team, were again signally honored by being chosen to the second division all-star team to play the east end team in an important charity match. Bob and Norm have few superiors in any of the Ontario leagues. Syd Bowman's eleven here in a tight dog fight with the C.G.E. team for honors, being one point down and one game more played than the factory workers at this stage. By time of reading this may well be otherwise but suffice to say the Newmarket boys are turning in the best display of any roundball team ever to represent No. 23.

Joe Buda, who is on the roster of No. 23 softball team although a civilian, pitched Mother Parker's to the Toronto senior softball title last week with a sparkling performance. Buda bested Ostranders in the final game and curiously enough, although Toronto champions, the tea-testers may not even win their own league. Round-robin tournaments were ever thus and we have never been in favor of them other than a means of providing extra greenbacks for the kitty since in most cases the better team or teams over the long haul seldom win out in such a series.

A good, ordinary guy is the type of fellow the girls want to middle-aisle it with according to a poll recently taken by a magazine. Opposed to the ordinary guy was the movie star and the sports star. Ninety-four percent favored the G.O.G., with the sports star drawing about six percent and the glamor boy less than one percent. Most sports stars, we have found, come under the heading of good, ordinary guys but there are some eccentric headliners and Good Ordinary Guys whose sports schedule doesn't work out satisfactorily in the wedding bells circuit.

Archery vs. golf proved so popular at the Highlands Golf club that another match is being readied for early September to which the public will be invited. This time the archer, Stew Henry, will take his bow and arrows to the course to match the left-handed drives of Ted Chatterley and the past president, Hugh McRae. These two porters seem to think that they can duplicate Bill Boaks efforts and as will be recalled, Bill was only able to win by one stroke as Stew blew his big chance on the 9th green. Perhaps two southpaws will prove to equal one good right hander. It will be quite a match with a bit of happy cabbage on the side to add fillip to the whole affair. In case you've forgotten the Highlands club is the Aurora club under a new moniker.

Billy Taylor has received his discharge from the Canadian army after three years' service, which means that regardless of what brand of service hockey may be seen in Newmarket arena this winter, "Billy The Kid", one of the biggest drawing cards and greatest players ever to be seen in action in canaltown, will not be present. Taylor will, of course, be at the Toronto Leafs and will be at Owen Sound come October. As (Page 4, Col. 3)

FARMERS' BULLETIN

HUNGRY EUROPE NEEDS MEAT

The shortage of food in liberated Europe is desperate. Meat is one of the most critical needs:

As a great food-producing nation, Canada must, can—and will—help to meet this emergency.

That is why slaughtering has been placed under strict control:

That is why ration coupons will soon be used again by Canadians to buy meat:

There is only one objective—To reduce meat consumption in Canada in order to provide direct aid for the hungry peoples of Europe.

Slaughter Control

Farmers who slaughter meat for their own or their former neighbor's use are required to submit monthly reports (Form RB-61) and to surrender coupons for the meat they use and sell.

Any excess of meat over the farmer's or his neighbor's needs may be sold only to the holder of a regular slaughter permit.

The minimum amount which a farmer may sell to such a permit holder is one quarter of beef or half a hog carcass. Sheep, lambs or calves slaughtered by a farmer for his own or his neighbor's use may not be sold into the meat trade.

Locker Operators

Under the meat rationing regulations, locker operators are required to submit a list of their patrons to the nearest Ration Branch Office.

A supply of Consumer Declaration forms is being forwarded to each locker operator who will, in turn, distribute them to his patrons. The patron is responsible for completing the form and filing it with the Ration Branch Office.

Consumers must surrender coupons for all meat held in lockers over and above 4 lbs. for each person in the household at a rate of 2 lbs. per coupon. However, no more than 50% of the "M" coupons in the ration books of the consumer and his household need be surrendered.

MEAT RATIONING FACTS

Rationing

Is your assurance of a fair share.
Is a protection against waste... shortages... inflation.

That is why farmers are asked to continue to collect and turn in coupons to their Local Ration Boards—once a month—in the RB-61 envelope.

Frank Selke says, "Now, if only Syl Apps would return," the Smythe men would have no trouble so far as forwards are concerned. Gus Bodnar and Teeter Kennedy, new pivot men since the days when Taylor was the toast of the queen city, give the Leafs three men who should be tops in their position. Don't forget that Bud Poile is expected in from the R.C.A.F. too.

On his last year's form, Taylor should have no difficulty winning a place on the team but whether or not he'll take top billing over his two younger rivals remains to be seen. Billy was top scorer in the services league last winter. In addition to playing hockey, he played lacrosse on the championship Camp Borden Combines last summer and played softball in 1944 for Medical Corps as well as handling the redhot corner for the '45 edition of Newmarket camp softballers. Billy was popular with his mates and the fans and but for one of those whimsies of fate which so often happen might well have been discharged last year in time for the N.H.L. Three years in the army has meant a total loss to Taylor of at least $15,000 in cold gelt.

We weep no tears for Billy in this regard since he deserved no more consideration than others so far as military service was concerned but it was a lot of money to see go by. He is still young enough to never miss it while many of our servicemen have lost more than money can buy in the way of life, health and happiness. Well here's good luck to Billy and that means good luck to Happy Day too.

According to our scouts in the Maritimes, Hugh Mair, the rollicking sailor, will shortly be discharged and available for civilian hockey again. Scotty was in Toronto not so long ago with some of the other navy puckchangers who live up this way, talking things over. Mair is exceedingly popular in Halifax and along with other tars, has been offered some heavy sugar to stay down that way. We understand he intends to turn professional if out of the service and will be seen for a starter in the international loop. We won't name the club.

Already discharged from the navy and ready for a trial with either Chicago Black Hawks or Tulsa is Clare Dillon, the big North Bay boy who was a stand-out on defence with navy juniors in the district O.H.A. group and the leading defenceman in the services senior circuit. Dillon will make it with ease.

Also discharged, but from the R.C.A.F., is Sgt. Ross Waddell, former Aurora junior netminder and also with Oshawa Generals. Ross is again located in Oshawa after serving with distinction overseas and has turned out as a candidate for the Oshawa O.R.F.U. rugby club which is returning to the gridiron wars again after several years of inactivity. Ross was a clever performer with Danforth Tech some years ago in Toronto interscholastic competition.

Howard Morton, former president of the Aurora hockey club and for some years one of the big promoters of sport at Mount Albert (remember the Old Mill A.C.?) is back in the Mount after five years on active service during which time he did some mighty important work in the radio and communications field. Home from overseas is Dr. Neil Smith, former Stouffville dentist and hardball player. "Doc" went overseas three years ago with the dental corps and married an Irish girl. She came to Canada about a year ago and is quite Canadianized now. Neil expects to resume his practice in Stouffville when he receives his discharge and North York baseball will receive a big boost when that day comes.

Vic Coburn, former Markham junior hockeyist, is also back on this side of the water. Coburn is the lad who clashed with Whitey Bone in fistfuffs almost every game when Aurora (Newmarket) met the Markies. Aside from a hot temper, Coburn was a very effective player. Jack Evelyn of Elgin Mills, who was assistant golf pro at the Summit club, has also returned after serving in action with the artillery. Jack took in most of the leading golf courses while overseas and will probably be back at his old post next year. He doesn't look a day older for all his experiences.

Back from overseas and away to the U.S.A. for Pacific training is Ernie James of Bradford, once one of the key players of Aurora juniors and Bradford intermediates in tri-county lacrosse. Big Ernie is one of four brothers who have seen service in the present conflict. He is expected home now on completion of his American training since V-J Day has passed.

Oldtimers at Stouffville recently took on the present crop of kid baseballers in an exhibition tilt a few weeks ago and the kids won out 10-9. Of course Stouffville didn't have all their best old boys out but from away back when came W's Roadway, shortstop and catcher, and Red Forsythe, third sacker and outfielder. Wes has taken quite a bit of interest in the kids this season and has driven his car for them on more than one occasion. Red is still in the barbering business and talkative as ever.

Of more recent vintage was Southpaw Jack Pennock, now in business in Aurora, and Yorkie Smith, a right-hander who needs no introduction. Both hurlers worked well and while their control wasn't all it once was, they kept the youngsters guessing. Smith is one of the coaches of the present Stouffville teams. Ross Wideman, third baseman of the Stouffville team in the 30's, was also in action. Others who took part included Bob Snowball, Ken Laushway, Wally Nicholson, Fred Timbers, Gar Lehman, Elgin Wagg and Chuck Davis. In charge of the arbiters was none other than our old friend, Shine Davis, just as good as ever. He was assisted by L. C. Murphy and Bert Bell.

Mary Emmett, one of the best girl athletes at Aurora high school in recent years, now with the Canadian navy, finished second in the standing broad jump and ran on the relay team of H.M.C.S. Stadacona at a Wrens' track meet held in Halifax recently. Wren Emmett has been prominent in basketball while in the service. Marj McCarnan, whose softball performances have not been quite up to par this year, is finishing strong both at bat and in the field. While her team missed out on the trip to Cleveland for the world's title, they did win the right to represent the Sunnyside circuit in the Ontario softball championships. The league championship has not as yet been decided.

Jack Wheeler, for three years the defence stalwart of Newmarket camp, has received his discharge and "Dutch" is once more back in his native Collingwood. Wheeler played with Collingwood, Guelph and Barrie before joining Newmarket and had most everything to make him a standout but he often went off the beam, drawing needless penalties. Still his speed, stickhandling and body checks always went well with the fans and for a defenceman, he got more than his quota of tallies. He is troubled with an ulcerated stomach now and it is to be hoped that this will not interfere too much with his future for he was on the verge of making minor pro when he enlisted. Newmarket fans will remember him for years to come.

Next Monday at Kitchener, District 13 lawn bowlers will be in action for the provincial lawn bowling title. District 13 includes the vast Simcoe-York area stretching from Stayner on the north to Agincourt in the south.

Andy Mordison of Newmarket will handle the singles assignment. Andy took the finals from George Winters of Richmond Hill 21-18. Joe Hood and Bill McTaggart of Stayner will carry the doubles banner and a Stouffville foursome of Charlie Armstrong, Bert Lickorish, Dawson Davis and Fred Button, K.C., will look after the rinks tournament. Honors have thus been spread out far and wide and it is generally agreed the representation is adequate. Here's luck to the contestants for they represent some mighty fine bowlers and sportsmen.

In company with hundreds of others throughout the district, we were saddened to learn of the death of two prominent sportsmen, Bill Bosworth of Newmarket and Jack Brockbank of Richmond Hill. Mr. Bosworth was a familiar figure on the lawn bowling green and right up to the time of his sudden death had played his favorite sport. He lived a full life and was popular wherever he went. His large funeral was a testimony to the esteem in which he was held.

RAILWAYSGo After More Milk
The Shur-Gain Way

For high milk production, cows need plenty of protein, calcium and phosphorus. They need a feed they enjoy eating—so they won't go off their feed. Instead of feeding them on roughages and grains alone, which do not provide sufficient of the balancing ingredients, see that they get a feed that is properly balanced and will supply them with sufficient of these body-building, health-maintaining and milk-producing proteins, minerals and vitamins that they need in large quantities.

Feed them on SHUR-GAIN 16% Dairy Ration and watch their health improve and their milk flow increase. You'll get that extra two or three thousand pounds per year that your cows are capable of producing, and you'll keep health standards high into the bargain. Resolve today to change over to this high-efficiency cattle feed, made fresh for highest palatability and feeding value.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT BRAKE ROD BROKEN, CHARGE DISMISSED

A charge of careless driving against Pte. William Mortley, Willowdale, was dismissed in magistrate's court Friday by Magistrate J. P. Pritchard on evidence that a broken brake rod had been the cause of the accident from which the charge arose.

The accident occurred July 26 at a refreshment booth on the north shore of Lake Wilcox. A man and boy received minor injuries. Joseph Gaiger testified that on that date, he saw a truck approach the booth in "an erratic manner."

"The truck tried to pass between a parked car and the front of the booth. A boy and his father, who were standing at the booth, were struck by the truck," he said. "Accused said that there had been trouble with the brakes." "Had he been drinking?" asked Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong. "Yes," replied witness.

Constable Arthur Barley of North York township police, called to the stand to give evidence on a second charge, that of failing to have an operator's license, arising from the same accident, said that accused and the owner of the truck, J. Williams, had come into the station the following day. "Didn't I show you my license then?" asked accused. "There is no record of your having done so," replied witness.

Constable Aubrey Fleury testified that he saw the injured man and boy at the doctor's. "The boy, Kellis Morney, 12, had four stitches for a cut in his back and Mr. Morney had a burn across his chest where he hit the booth when struck by the truck," he said.

Accused told Magistrate Pritchard he had pulled into the booth to have a drink of pop. "I put the brakes on but the rod was broken," he said. "I saw the car parked in front of the booth and I swerved to avoid hitting it and hit the man and boy." "Had you been drinking?" asked Magistrate Pritchard. "Yes, two glasses of beer about two hours before the accident." "How do you know the brake rod was broken?" "It was lying on the ground."

Mr. Williams, the owner of the truck, who was riding in it at the time of the accident, testified that he heard the rod snap when the brakes were applied. "It was an unfortunate accident but I do not find the accused guilty of the careless driving charge," said Magistrate Pritchard. The charge of driving without a permit was withdrawn on the presentation of accused's license.

An 18-year-old Newmarket youth paid a fine of $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty to the charge of driving without a license. Newmarket Constable Stewart Martin laid the charge.

A 16-year-old youth was found guilty of careless driving on a charge arising out of an accident on the Hedge Road. "I was driving east on the road east of Pefferlaw when the car driven by the accused approached me from the west," Charles Avery testified. "As the car drew near me it turned into me and the two cars collided."

Witnesses for the defence testified that the car driven by Avery had only one light showing. Accused testified that the light was so bright that he was unable to see the Avery car and that he was slowing down when the accident occurred.

Counsel for defence, F. C. MacDonald, argued that the accident would not have occurred if the Avery car had had two lights showing. He said his client could not be blamed since the light from the Avery car had blinded him. Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong pointed out that accused should have stopped when he was blinded by the light.

Magistrate Pritchard found accused guilty on the grounds that he had not shown sufficient caution in approaching a car with one light. "If accused was blinded he should have stopped at once," he said. He fined accused $5 and costs.

Mike Eiserman, Toronto, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of exceeding the speed limit. Constable J. G. Jardine testified accused was travelling at 63 m.p.h.

In Memoriam

Hayes—In loving memory of our niece, Marjory Hayes, who passed away one year ago, Aug. 28, 1944.

Somewhere back of the sunset,
Where loveliness never dies,
She dwells in a land of glory
With the blue and gold of the skies,
And we who have known and loved her,
Whose passing has brought us
tears,
Will cherish her memory always Down through the passing years.

Sadly missed by Uncle Orley, Aunt Louise and Cousin Margaret.

Hayes—In loving memory of Marjorie Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hayes and sister of Beatrice who passed away Aug. 28, 1944.

What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile
As in the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife
And clasp each other's hand once more
In heaven, that happy life.

Pickering—In loving memory of our dear mother, Annie Pickering, who died two years ago, Aug. 24, 1943.

When days are dark and friends are few Dear mother how we think of you,
Friends are friends if they are true,
We lost our best friend when we lost you.

Always remembered by Clarence, Vera and family.

Scott—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, George B. Scott, who passed away Aug. 28, 1943.

God knew that he was suffering,
The hills were hard to climb,
So he closed his weary eyelids And whispered "Peace be thine".
Away in the beautiful hills of God
By the valley of rest so fair, Sometime, some day, we know not when,
We will meet our loved one there.

Lovingly remembered by his wife and family.

Slade—In ever loving memory of Cpl. Jack L. Slade, 1st battalion, R.H.L.I., who was killed near La Londe in France on Aug. 29, 1944.

Some day we hope to meet again,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land,
Never to part again.

Ever remembered by his wife,
LAW J. Edith Slade, R.C.A.F.
(W.D.), overseas.

Miss Helen Baycroft and Mrs. H. J. Baycroft, Yonge St., were surprised on Saturday to meet a relative, home from overseas, whom they had never met before. The returned veteran, now discharged, was Pte. Alva Baycroft, Innisfail, Alta.

Pte. Baycroft is a son of the late William Baycroft who settled in the west many years ago. He is seeing Ontario for the first time, other than passing through en route overseas. He served several years overseas with a western Canada unit, and intends to return to the west. A few happy hours were spent checking up and rediscovering family history. Miss Baycroft is a cousin, and Mrs. Baycroft an aunt of Pte. Baycroft.

He went into action shortly after D-Day and served until V-E Day in France, Belgium and Holland without receiving any injury. Born at Lloydstown, he attended school at Dunkerron and before enlisting, was employed by the C.N.R. at Sudbury. He is survived by his mother, three brothers and three sisters.

DONALD GORDON BITTEN BY DOG AT KING FARM

Four-year-old Donald Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Gordon, King, had a narrow escape from serious injury on Thursday. Donald had accompanied his father, a King garageman, to a neighboring farm, and went to open the gate. The farmer's dog, previously friendly to children, rushed to the child, biting him in the mouth. Donald was treated by Dr. C. J. Devins and a number of stitches were required to close the wound.

CORRECTION

Last week The Era and Express correctly reported the arrival home of Pte. Leonard Chapman, Argyll-Sutherland Highlanders. Through an error in the office, a picture of Cpl. Leonard Chapman, Irish Regiment of Canada, also overseas, was reproduced. The two while bearing the same name are not related. The editor regrets the error and hopes it has not caused too much inconvenience to those involved.

Four Aurora Boys Get
Pointers From Pros
At Baseball School

Determined to better their baseball play, and perhaps head for a baseball career, four Aurora youths attended the baseball school conducted by the Toronto Maple Leafs and Philadelphia Athletics last week. The boys were Loring Doolittle, catcher, Ron Simmons, pitcher, Bill McGhee, first base, and Bill Mundell, outfield. Young Simmons was the only one able to take the whole three-day course, which was free of charge.

Ronnie received tuition from Ira Thomas and Jack Coombs, former stars of the Philadelphia club, Loring was coached by Jim Pruett, ace catcher of Toronto, and his picture was in one of the Toronto dailies. Bill McGhee received personal attention from Manager Harry Davis, first baseman of the Toronto team. Young Mundell got into a practice game, and also received some attention from Bob Abate, Toronto playground supervisor.

All four were enthusiastic over their experiences and the benefits gained by attending the school. "You couldn't help but play better ball after seeing the big fellows in action and getting the inside pointers," Bill Mundell said. But for an injured finger, Doolittle would probably have got into Saturday's tilt between two teams from the school.

The coaching should do much to benefit the quartet and local kid baseball. Over 200 boys from all over Ontario attended, but this foursome were the only ones from the York Lions club in attendance. Coaches Del Babcock and Bill Holloway showed the boys much the same inside dope according to Ron Simmons, but the fact that it was professional help and the presence of so many others made a big difference. "Wait till next season," says young Simmons.

York Lions Bantam Team
Will Meet City Winners

Scheduled to meet the Toronto winners, York Lions bantams are practising hard these days under the direction of Coach Delroy Babcock, Aurora, and Manager Grant Nighswander, Richmond Hill. They expect to play the end of this week and next week, in the O.B.A. play-downs.

The top age for the team is 14, and the kids are assured of a fair following of fans. Selected for the team by the coaches are: catcher, Keith Kyle, Aurora; pitchers, Ronnie Simmons, Aurora, and Jack Atkinson, Richmond Hill; infielders, Don Brown, Markham, Bob Petch, Milliken, Doug. Moore, Richmond Hill, Gerry Simmons, Aurora, John King, Aurora, and Eric Hillaby, Richmond Hill; outfielders, Silvia Steffan, "Sonny" Charles and Lorne Sheardown, from Richmond Hill, and Jimmy Cook, Tracy Barrager and Ralph Rank, Aurora. Ron Simmons and Atkinson, the two pitchers, when not working on the mound will take an infield post.

The team is technically called Richmond Hill, but will wear Aurora uniforms and is expected to play on the Aurora diamond. Either Columbus Boys or Elizabeth Playground will emerge as the Toronto winner.

Jack Brockbank, on the other hand, was in his early 20's and had every right to expect a long and useful life, especially since he had gone through four years of war in Europe. On July 25, in Holland, as a member of the Governor General's Horse Guards, he came to his death as a result of an accident. On July 10 he had been married to an English girl. Young Brock-bank was an all-round athlete at Richmond Hill high school, played softball for the championship York-Simcoe club in the outfield and played on the forward line for Richmond Hill juniors. In 1940-41 he signed with Aurora juniors, played in the S.P.A. series and then left the team to join the army. It had been his ambition to play professional hockey and although perhaps he didn't quite possess that much skill, he was a fine, clean-cut lad with plenty of natural ability. We extend the sympathy of sportsmen everywhere to both families.

Back in Canada and likely to see action as a referee in the N.H.L. is Capt. Teddy Graham, former member of Owen Sound Greys, Montreal Maroons and Chicago Black Hawks. Teddy, it will be recalled, was the first sports officer at Newmarket camp. He attained his majority and then reverted to the rank of lieutenant to go overseas, seeing action in North Africa. He returned to Canada for a tour of duty and then returned to Europe to get in the final round.
A great player and a splendid officer, Capt. Graham would make a valuable addition to Red Dutton's staff and, of course, he has had previous experience.

Along with hundreds of others we were disappointed when Newmarket (Stouffville as they are really called) didn't meet Collingwood at the camp diamond on Saturday. An hour before game time, the field was in good condition, the sun was shining, players were on hand from Milliken, Aurora and Richmond Hill and fans too. As events proved, the game could have been played. The kids stepped into Collingwood last Thursday and took Huck Caesar's proteges with comparative ease.
We hope the York Lions youngsters get by the round (they were billed for the return game last night). The ultimate winner will have some long trips ahead as according to the dope, Toronto, Niagara Falls, Hamilton, Kitchener or Windsor are all left in the fight.

Ken Broughton turned in a sparkling performance on the diamond but the Collingwood management just wouldn't believe he was only 16 and phoned Secretary W. J. Snyder of the O.B.A. accordingly. However, Secretary Bill Holloway has his birth certificate to prove it and there is no doubt about the matter.
Smokey Smith, ex-Cornwall, Barrie, Collingwood southpaw, umpired the game in Colling-wood behind the plate and those who saw the game are singing his praises. Bobby Bell handled the sacks in fine style too. Hope the fans will get behind the kids in their drive for a pennant as they have a fair chance to come through. It is too bad they have to meet big city teams and that there is no B rating in baseball.
Don't sell the Haskett-Simmons-Holloway-McHale clan short.
They'll be in there giving their best.

The Era and Express office will be open Saturday evenings from 7.30 to 9.30, and not Saturday afternoons, for the summer months.

REMEMBER?

"HOW TO LIVE BEYOND
YOUR MEANS," by Margery Wilson, sets forth in highly readable prose the technique of putting more depth and color into living, more work accomplished, more awareness of what goes on around you and more purpose into everyday life. It inspires a way of thinking which tends to greater health, more wisdom in spending. This is a book on the science of a well-rounded personality, it is a challenge to meet and women to re-examine the possibilities wrapped up in wasted hours (Longmans Green.)

WHILE THERE IS TIME, Stephen Leacock (McClelland and Stewart). With the world at the point of a socialistic crisis this discussion from the pen of the late Stephen Leacock, humorist and economist and one of these rare Canadian, an original thinker, discusses the grave issues involved in this conflict, and brings the full force of his wit and wisdom to bear, not against capitalism or against socialism, but against a devastating social catastrophe through ignorance and misconception of the fundamental issues as they are now shaping up. A featherweight attack on political humbug, woody utopianism.
